GET OUT AND CUB SCOUT

The Scout OATH

On my honor, I will do my best, to do my duty, to God and my country and to obey the Scout Law; To help other people at all times; To keep myself physically strong, mentally awake and morally straight.

Scouting Provides:

- Value for your investment
- Flexibility for your busy schedule
- Positive role models for your child
- Experiences & memories that last a lifetime

What Do Scouts Do?

- Camping • Swimming • Archery • Marksmanship • Summer Day Camp • Sports and Games • Derby Car Races • Hands-on Projects • STEAM • Service Projects • Make New Friends

Your Child, Cub Scouting and You:

As a parent, you want your son or daughter to grow up to be a self-reliant, dependable, and caring individual. So does Scouting! Time-tested and parent-approved, Cub Scouting weaves lifetime values into a kid-friendly program of exciting activities and achievement. Best of all, you get to be part of the action as you share true quality time and form memories that will last a lifetime.

How Much Does Cub Scouting Cost?

Costs vary depending on the pack, but there is a national registration fee and an optional fee for Boy's Life Magazine. Additional costs are covered through fundraising and/or pack activity fees, which vary. You'll learn more at the information meeting.

How Much Time Does Scouting Involve?

Cub Scouting is designed to fit your family's busy schedule. Most groups meet once a week for about an hour. Family-friendly outings and activities are held throughout the year, and the summer is filled with adventure and camping!
